FOOD SAFETY AND CLIENT RESPONSIBILITIES

1. It is the Client's responsibility to inform us well in advance of any dietary requirements. While we make every effort to accommodate such requirements, this may not always be possible. Pricing may also vary.
2. To advise of beverage/liquor/fruit allergies - while we will support all guests in making the right drink choices for their health, via proper food handling (fruits), correct menu signage if requested, beverage/liquor/fruit allergy is the responsibility of the individual and we will not be held responsible for an individual's incorrect choice of drink.
3. A suitable area within the venue must be provided. Grazed PH recommends that our Sangria Bar (including grazing tables) must be setup indoors in an air-conditioned space, away from direct sunlight. Due to the climate in the Philippines and for food safety reasons, Grazed PH advise against setting up a table outdoors. If Client insists on an outdoor set up, Grazed PH shall not be held liable for any circumstances, costs, liabilities or claims arising out of a failure to adhere to the table requirements.
4. The Client has the option to keep the remaining Sangria after the initial service is over. Empty Bottles will be available for an additional charge. Grazed PH is no longer responsible for leftovers after the initial service nor any consequences due to its later consumption.
5. Grazed PH is not liable for any liquor provided by the Client that may be hazardous for human consumption. Should the Client wish to have the said liquor included, a separate table will be provided and must be requested in advance. Additional charges will apply for table set up and arrangement.
6. Any losses, breakages, gate entrance fee, parking fee & supplier's bond at the venue, it will be charged to the Client.
7. All non-food support items brought in by Grazed PH, such as boards, floral arrangements, Décor, Styling Materials, plates, glass, utensils, etc, remains the property of Grazed PH. Client does not have the right to claim such items.
8. Only the Client and its Authorized representative will be allowed to discuss the details of the event.
9. Provide a minimum of 2 -3 hours set-up time, depending on table size and Client requirements.
10. When catering in an outdoor public area that is subject to submission of permits (including indoor events such as in malls or any venue that may require one), it is the responsibility of the client to organize necessary permits and to provide us with a copy.
